OVERVIEW

The School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston (SMFA), presents the “Fifth Year Exhibition 2007,” on view in the Grossman Gallery and Anderson Auditorium from April 13–May 5. The show features 12 artists whose work is both individual and reflective of the current zeitgeist. A sense of fluidity predominates as several artists embrace simultaneously seemingly opposing concerns—chaos and order, man and nature, focus and blur, micro and macro—and transition from one to the other without resistance. The open-ended, interconnected, and uncertain is a recurring theme in the work.

The Fifth Year Certificate program is an intensive year of study open to graduates of the School’s Diploma program designed to foster a period of transformation from art student to independent artist.

EXHIBITING ARTISTS:

James Bellinger, Nicholas Brynolfson, Matthew Paul Cleary, Helga Butzer Felleisen, Elizabeth Hathaway, Daniel Johnson, Timothy Andrew Kadish, Crislin Meshberg, Norah Solorzano, Jorge Cristian Espada Valenzuela, Angelica C. Vanasse, and E. Colin Zwyndregt.
