BRICE MARDEN TO RECEIVE THE 12TH ANNUAL MEDAL AWARD FROM THE SCHOOL OF THE MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS, BOSTON

The School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston (SMFA), will honor renowned American artist Brice Marden at the 12th annual Medal Award ceremony and gala dinner on May 7, 2007.

The Medal Award is given to an individual whose work furthers the development and understanding of contemporary art. Considered to be one of the finest artists of his generation, Marden first received critical acclaim in the 1960s and '70s for his minimalist monochrome panel paintings. In the mid-1980s he began producing calligraphy-inspired paintings featuring sinuous ribbons of color, and in the past decade he has produced color-intense, linear abstractions. While his work has evolved over his more than 40-year career, it continues to be celebrated for its emotional intensity and formal simplicity.

The Medal Award ceremony and gala dinner will take place at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, and the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, on Monday, May 7, 2007. All proceeds from this event support student scholarships at the Museum School. For sponsorship information or to purchase tickets, please call 617-369-3659.
