FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Annual Spring Sidewalk Sale May 11 + 12 at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston

A portion of proceeds to benefit an organization selected by students—Mobius

WHAT

Explore the creative and original works by artists in 2012 SMFA Spring Sidewalk Sale at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston (SMFA). On May 11 + 12, hundreds of pieces of art by over 70 students will be for sale—from ceramics, photography, screen prints and handmade cards to jewelry, T-shirts, paintings, henna tattoos and much more. Prices start at around $5.

In an effort to give back to the community, each year students select an organization to donate a percentage of the sale's proceeds to; this year proceeds will benefit Mobius. Founded in 1977, Mobius is a non-profit, artist-run organization, whose mission is to generate, shape and test experimental art. The group is committed to fostering projects incorporating a wide range of disciplines on local, national and international levels.

WHEN

Friday, May 11, 10 am–5 pm
Saturday, May 12, 10 am–5 pm

WHERE

School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston
230 The Fenway, Boston, MA 02115

About the School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston:

Founded in 1876 and accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design, the School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston (SMFA), is one of only three art schools in the country affiliated with a major museum—the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. Our mission is to provide an education in the fine arts—for undergraduate and graduate artists—that is interdisciplinary and self-directed. This education values cultural, artistic and intellectual diversity; it embraces a wide range of media; it stresses the development of individual vision and its relation to culture in general; it values equally the knowledge gained by thinking and doing; it is deeply engaged with the world as a whole. If the mission is constant, its practice is always transforming. For more information about our programs and partnerships, visit www.smfa.edu.
